

Screw Construction PRO TEXTIL

With the wide range of accessories, it is possible to construct textile frames as pure screw construction.

The profiles just need to be mitered and can then be screwed easily together with the help of the corner connectors.

The necessary stability also for larger boxes can be achieved with cross strutings - simply realized with frame support profile and tension locks.